Speak Gently.

Speak gently to the erring.

Te know not all the power
With which the dark temptation came
In some unguarded hour;
Ye may not know how earnestly
They struggled, or how well,
Until the hour of darkness came, And sadly thus they fell.

Speak gently of the erring.
Oh, do not thou forget.
However darkly stained by sin,
He is thy brothet yet.
Help of the self-ame heritage,
Child of the self-ame God,
He hath but stumbled in the path
Thou hast in weakness trod.

Speak gently to the erring, Speak gently to the cross.

For is it not enough

That innocence and peace are gone
Without thy censure rough?

It surely is a weary lot,
That sin-crushed heart to bear;
And they who share a happler fate Their chidings well may spare.

Speak kindly of the erring— Thou yet mayst lead him back, With holy words and tones of love, From misery's thorny track; Forget not thou hast often sinned, And sinful yet must be; Deal kindly with the erring one, As God has dealt with thee! -Exchange
